

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

- + Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
- + Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
- + Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
- + Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

About Google Book Search

Google's mission is to organize the world's information and to make it universally accessible and useful. Google Book Search helps readers discover the world's books while helping authors and publishers reach new audiences. ## NOTICE.

THE subjoined ORDINANCE gives the organic basis of the PUBLIC LIBRARY of the City of Fall River. This is followed by a copy of the contract with the Fall River Athenæum, by which its books and other property were transferred to the City Government upon the conditions and for the purpose therein set forth.

This latter document has been inserted entire with a view to the more certain preservation of that agreement, and for the purpose of giving publicity to a transaction alike honorable to the City Government and to the stockholders of the Fall River Athenæum.

The catalogue of books which follows comprises all belonging to the LIBRARY, except such as may have been purchased or otherwise acquired since the manuscript passed into the hands of the printer. These and future additions will appear in appendixes, to be published at such times as in the judgment of the TRUSTEES it shall be deemed necessary.

This catalogue has been compiled by Mr. C. M. Smith, with the assistance of Mr. George W. Rankin, under the direction of the TRUSTEES of the PUBLIC LIBRARY.

FALL RIVER, May, 1874.

AN ORDINANCE

FOR THE ESTABLISHMENT AND GOVERNMENT OF A PUBLIC LIBRARY.

Be it Ordained by the City Council of the City of Fall River as follows:

SECTION 1. There shall be and hereby is established a Public Library in the City of Fall River, for the free use of the inhabitants thereof.

SECT. 2. The immediate control and management of the Public Library shall be vested in a Board of Trustees, to consist of the Mayor ex-officio and six other citizens, to be chosen in the manner hereinafter directed, who shall hold their offices until others are chosen in their places.

SECT. 3. The members of said Board of Trustees shall be elected by the City Council in joint convention, by ballot. At the first election thereof, two of the members of said Board shall be elected for the term of three years, two for the term of two years, and two for the term of one year; and the ballots for said Board shall designate the term of years for which each person voted for shall serve; after which first election, two members of said Board shall be annually elected in the month of April, or as soon after as may be convenient, for the term of three years.

SECT. 4. All moneys now or hereafter appropriated for said Library shall be expended under the direction of said Trustees, who shall have full power to expend the same in the purchase of such books as they may select, and in meeting all expenditures of the establishment, support, and efficiency of said institution.

SECT. 5. Said Trustees shall have full power to appoint a Librarian and all subordinate officers that may be deemed by them expedient, to fix the salary of the same, to be paid out of the appropriation for the Library, and the same to remove at pleasure.

SECT. 6. They also shall have full power to make all needful and suitable regulations concerning said Library and the use thereof, subject to approval of the City Council.

SECT. 7. Said Trustees shall annually, in the month of February, lay before the City Council a detailed report of the doings and condition of the Library.

AGREEMENT
BETWEEN CITY OF FALL RIVER AND THE

THIS agreement, made and concluded this Seventh day of December, in the year of our Lord Eighteen Hundred and Sixty, by and between the Fall River Athenæum, a body corporate in the City of Fall River, County of Bristol, and Commonwealth of Massachusetts, of the one part, and said City of Fall River on the other part, Witnesseth, That for the purpose of promoting the establishment of a Public Library in the City of Fall River, and in consideration of the promises and agreements on the part of said City hereinafter contained, the said Fall River Athenæum have agreed to transfer, assign, and set over, and do hereby transfer, assign, and set over, to said City and its successors, for the use of the Public Library of said City only, all and singular the books belonging to the Library of said Athenæum, now contained therein, the appraised value of which is Three Thousand Dollars, and for a list of which said books reference may be had to a copy of the Catalogue thereof attested by the Directors of the Athenæum and herewith rendered the City of Fall River. To have and to hold the same to said City and its successors, to its and their use and behoof forever, for the purpose aforesaid. And the said City of Fall River, in consideration of the agreement and transfer aforesaid, of said Athenæum, both on its part for itself and its successors, promise and agree to and with said Athenæum, its successors and assigns, and the above agreement and transfer are upon these express conditions, viz. : that in case said Public Library should be abandoned at any time, books to the amount of Three Thousand Dollars in value, or their equivalent, that being the appraised value of the Athenæum Library as before stated, shall be returned by said City or its successors, to said Athenæum, its successors or assigns; that the rights and privileges of the Public Library shall be extended to Robert McEwen and David Robertson, residents of Fall River, R.I., and their legal representatives, subject to the rules and regulations thereof, same as citizens of the City of Fall River, and that the City of Fall River will assume and pay the existing indebtedness of said Athenæum to an amount not exceeding Sixty Dollars. In witness whereof the Directors of the Fall River Athenæum for this purpose duly authorized, have hereunto set the name of said Athenæum and their own names, and the Trustees of the Public Library, of the City of Fall River, for this purpose duly authorized by a vote of the City Council, have hereunto set the name of said City, and their own names, the day and year first above written.

Rules and Regulations of the Public Library

OF THE

CITY OF FALL RIVER.

CHAPTER I.

OF THE BOARD OF TRUSTEES AND THEIR DUTIES.

ARTICLE 1. The Mayor of the City shall be President of the Board.

ART. 2. The regular meetings of the Board shall be on the last Saturday of each month.

ART. 3. The President shall call a special meeting of the Board at the written request of any two members, provided such request state the object for which the meeting is to be called; and may at any time call such a meeting at his own discretion.

ART. 4. At the first meeting of the Board after the adoption of these Rules and Regulations, and thereafter annually, at their regular meeting in April, the Standing Committees of the Board shall be appointed, any vacancy in which may be filled at any meeting.

ART. 5. The Standing Committees of the Board shall consist of three members, and shall be as follows:—

1. On Library and Library Rooms.
2. On Librarian.
3. On Accounts and Finance.

It shall be the duty of the

COMMITTEE ON LIBRARY AND LIBRARY ROOMS,

1. To recommend to the Board, from time to time, such books as it may be desirable to purchase or exchange.

2. To purchase and exchange such books as the Board may authorize.

3. To direct in relation to the repairs, binding and covering of books, and their preparation for circulation.

4. To determine, subject to the sanction of the Board, what books shall be used only for reference; and to impose such other restrictions, on the use of the books, as in their judgment may be expedient.

5. Annually, in the month of August, to make an examination of the Library, and prepare for the adoption of the Board the Report required to be presented to the City Council, according to the 7th section of the Ordinance entitled "An Ordinance for the establishment and government of a Public Library."

6. To have the general charge of the room or rooms in which the property of the Library is contained.

7. To see that the rules and regulations for preserving order in the rooms be complied with.

It shall be the duty of the

COMMITTEE ON LIBRARIAN,

1. To see that the rules and regulations relative to the duties of the Librarian be strictly complied with.

2. To see that proper books and forms be proposed for the use of the Librarian.

3. To make any temporary change in the rules and regulations relative to the Librarian which they may deem expedient, provided such change does not continue after the next regular meeting of the Board, without their sanction.

4. To superintend the preparation and printing such catalogues of the books in the Library as the Board may order.

It shall be the duty of the

COMMITTEE ON ACCOUNTS AND FINANCES,

1. To examine all bills against the Library, and report the same to the Board for approval.

2. To present to the Committee on Library and Library Rooms, annually, on or before the 10th of January, a report of all receipts and expenditures for the year, and of the state of the Library Fund.

3. To employ such means as they may deem best to obtain donations in money and books, for the increase of the Library; all money thus received, to be paid over to the City Treasurer, and by him passed to the credit of the Library Fund, to be appropriated at the order of the Board.

ART. 6. No book, pamphlet, or other article presented to the Library, shall be placed in the room permanently until it shall have been examined and approved by the Committee on Library and Library Rooms.

ART. 7. All the Standing Committees shall be at all times under the direction and control of the Board; and no expenditure exceeding twenty dollars shall be made by either Committee, without the sanction of the Board.

ART. 8. All Committees of the Board shall be appointed by the President, unless otherwise ordered.

ART. 9. A majority of the members of the Board shall be a quorum for the transaction of business; but a less number may adjourn any meeting.

CHAPTER II.

OF THE USE OF THE LIBRARY.

ART. 1. All inhabitants of the City of Fall River above the age of twenty-one years, properly identified, who shall sign an obligation to observe all the existing Rules and Regulations of the Library, and all Rules that may be subsequently prescribed by due authority, and all inhabitants of said City between the ages of fourteen and twenty-one years, for whom a parent, guardian, or some responsible person, shall sign an obligation that they will be responsible for said minor's observance of the rules and regulations of the Library, and will make good any injury or loss the Library may sustain from the permission that may be given in consequence of such obligation, shall have free right to take books from the Library so long as they comply strictly with its regulations.

ART. 2. Any person not included in Article 1st of this Chapter may take books from the Library on presenting to the Librarian a written permission signed by the President of the Board and two of the Trustees, such permission designating the time the book may be retained.

ART. 3. No person shall be allowed more than one volume, and no family of the same household shall be allowed more than three volumes, at any one time. Books may be kept out of the Library fourteen days only, provided always, any book may be renewed once to the same person, but not more than once, until it shall have remained in the Library one full Library day. The fine for retention of any volume over the time above specified, shall be two cents for every day it is so retained. The provisions of this article are subject to the discretionary power conferred on the Committee on Library and Library Rooms, by Article 5, Chapter 1.

ART. 4. Any book retained two weeks beyond the time prescribed by these regulations, shall be sent for by the Librarian; and the expense incurred in obtaining it shall be paid by the person who has so retained it.

ART. 5. Any book when returned to the Library shall be delivered to the first one who shall afterwards apply for the same, and no book shall be reserved or promised by the Librarian in any case whatever.

ART. 6. All injuries to books, beyond a reasonable wear, and all losses, shall be made good to the satisfaction of the Committee on Library and Library Rooms, by the person liable; and any book not returned within one week after demand for it, made by the Librarian, shall be regarded as lost. If any book be lost, the person for whose use it was taken out shall pay such a sum as the Committee shall determine, or replace the book; or, if it be one of a set, he shall pay the price of a set, and take the remaining volumes to himself, if the Committee on Library and Library Rooms should so determine.

ART. 7. All books are required to be returned to the Library fourteen days before the annual examination, under penalty of a fine of one dollar; but seasonable public notice shall be given by the Librarian.

ART. 8. No person having a book from this Library shall lend it to any person not a member of the same household; and no person owing a fine or forfeiture shall receive books from the Library until the same is paid.

ART. 9. All persons visiting the Library Rooms will be required to demean themselves quietly, and to avoid all unnecessary conversation in the rooms. Any person abusing the privileges of the Library by improper or offensive conduct will be denied admission to the Library Rooms.

ART. 10. Every person entitled to borrow books out of the Public Library, for home use, and desirous so to do, shall receive from the Librarian a printed card, on which the book asked for shall be designated in blanks left for the purpose, by entering the number of the alcove in which it stands, and the number of the book, and if it be a part of a set, then the number of a particular volume, all of which numbers may be easily ascertained from the printed copies of the Catalogue; and this card, which will be presented to the Librarian as the only mode of obtaining any book that may be asked for, will be returned to the owner at once if the book cannot be found, or if it is found, then as soon as it is duly charged in the borrower's account.

ART. 11. Books of reference, and those deemed by the Committee on Library and Library Rooms unsuitable for general circulation, shall not be loaned except by an order signed by at least two of the said Committee.

ART. 12. The Library shall be open for the delivery of books every day, — Sundays, New Year's Day, Washington's Birth Day, Fast Day, the Fourth of July, Thanksgiving, and Christmas excepted, — at such hours as shall be determined from time to time by the Trustees.

CHAPTER III.

OF THE LIBRARIAN AND HIS DUTIES.

ART. 1. The Librarian, under the direction of the Committee on Librarian, shall have the charge and superintendence of all the rooms of the Public Library, and shall be responsible for the due care and keeping of all the books or other public property contained in them.

ART. 2. He shall be present in the Library, in person or by an assistant, during such times as it may be open to the public, and during all other times when required by the Trustees to be there; performing, in such a manner as they may prescribe, whatsoever duties are usually required of a Librarian.

ART. 3. He shall arrange all the books on the shelves in an order convenient for use, and shall enter, in a record to be kept for that purpose, the time when each book was received; its condition; its cost, if purchased; the name of its donor, if given; and all other facts in relation to it which the Board may direct; such record to be called the Catalogue of Accessions.

ART. 4. He shall prepare such Catalogues, books, and forms as the Committee on Librarian shall direct.

ART. 5. He shall keep a careful record of all such books as may be asked for, and are not in the Library, and also of the names of the persons asking for them, exhibiting it to the Committee on Library and Library Rooms whenever called for.

ART. 6. He shall cause to be marked on each volume in the Library, or on the back of its cover, the number of the alcove in which it is kept, and its own number as it stands on the shelf.

ART. 7. He shall cause every volume intended for circulation to be neatly covered with suitable paper, and to have attached to it a book-plate with such rules of the Library as are needful to be known by those who may use it, and such other matter as the Trustees shall direct; but he shall permit no book to be used until it shall have been entered in the Catalogue of Accessions.

ART. 8. He shall annually, at the discretion of the Committee on Library and Library Rooms, call in all books that are out, and prepare for examination the books and other property of the Library under his control; and shall at the same time make and present to the Committee on Library and Library Rooms, a detailed and circumstantial report of its condition and increase during the year.

ART. 9. These Rules and Regulations, or any of them, may be repealed, altered, or enlarged at any time, by vote of the Trustees, subject to the approval of the City Council.

NOTE.

Authors, subjects, and titles are placed in a single alphabetical arrangement, upon the plan of a dictionary. Where date or place is omitted in the principal entry, which is usually the one under the author's name, the work is without date or place, or lacks the title-page.

Special attention is called to the following law of the Commonwealth:—

“Whoever wilfully and maliciously writes upon, injures, defaces, tears, or destroys any book, plate, picture, engraving, or statue, belonging to any law, town, city, or public library, shall be punished by a fine of not less than five dollars, nor more than one thousand dollars, for every such offence.”

- Vol. I. A discourse touching the training of children; Concerning the cure of anger; Of bashfulness; That virtue may be taught; The account of the laws and customs of the Lacedæmonians; Concerning music; Of the tranquillity of the mind; Of superstition, or indiscreet devotion; The apophthegms or remarkable sayings of kings and great commanders; Rules for the preservation of health; How a man may receive advantage and profit from his enemies; Consolation to Apollonius; Concerning the virtues of women; Of hearing; Of large acquaintance, or an essay to prove the folly of seeking many friends; Concerning the fortune or virtue of Alexander the Great.

- II. The banquet of the seven wise men; How a young man ought to hear poems; Of envy and hatred; How to know a flatterer from a friend; That it is not possible to live pleasurably according to the doctrine of Epicurus; Roman questions; Greek questions; Of the love of wealth; How a man may inoffensively praise himself without being liable to envy; Concerning the procreation of the soul, as discoursed in Timæus; That a philosopher ought chiefly to converse with great men; A discourse concerning Socrates' Dæmon; Of curiosity, or an overbusy inquisitiveness into things impertinent; How a man may be sensible of his progress in virtue; Of fortune; Of virtue and vice; Conjugal precepts.
- III. Whether 'twere rightly said, live concealed; An abstract of a comparison betwixt Aristophanes and Menander; Of banishment, or flying one's country; Of brotherly love; Wherefore the Pythian priestess now ceases to deliver her oracles in verse; Of those sentiments concerning nature with which philosophers were delighted; A breviary of a discourse showing that the stoics speak greater improbabilities than the poets; Symposiaca; Of moral virtue; Natural questions.
- IV. Why the oracles cease to give answers; Of Isis and Osiris, or the ancient religion and philosophy of Egypt; Concerning such whom God is slow to punish; Of natural affection towards one's offspring; Concerning the fortune of the Romans; Of garrulity, or talkativeness; Of love; Five tragical histories of love; A discourse to an unlearned prince; Of Herodotus' malice; Of common conceptions, against stoics; The contradictions of the stoics; Of the word ET engraven over the gate of Apollo's temple at Delphi; Whether vice is sufficient to render a man unhappy; Whether the passions of the soul or diseases of the body are worse.
- V. Of eating of flesh; Lives of the ten orators; Whether an aged man ought to meddle in state affairs; Political precepts; Which are the most crafty, water-animals or those creatures that breed upon the land; That brute beasts make use of reason; Of the face appearing within the orb of the moon; Of fate; Concerning the first principle of cold; Whether water or fire be most useful; Against Colotes, the disciple and favorite of Epicurus; Plutarch's consolatory letter to his wife; Of three sorts of government, — monarchy, democracy, and oligarchy; Whether the Athenians were more renowned for their warlike achievements or their learning; Against running in debt, or taking up money upon usury; Platonic questions; Parallels, or a comparison between the Greek and Roman histories; On the names of rivers and mountains, and of such things as are to be found therein; Index.
